Donor Privacy Policy

We Respect Your Privacy: The Cape Cod Commercial Fishermen's Alliance ("Fishermen's Alliance") is committed to respecting the privacy of its financial and in-kind donors, whether the donation is made online, by mail, or any other method. When you make a financial or in-kind donation, you provide your name and contact information. Financial donors provide standard payment information including, in many circumstances, credit card data. We protect your information in a variety of ways, as described below.

- The Fishermen's Alliance uses donors' information to understand their interests in its mission and to update them on the organization's plans and activities. It is shared with staff, board members, volunteers and consultants only on a "need-to-know" basis.
- Information about donors and donations is handled with respect and confidentiality.
- We do not exchange, lend, rent or sell our donor lists to third party organizations.
- The personal information you provide when making an online donation or registering for an event will not be disclosed to any unauthorized third parties.
- When you make a donation online, a secure connection is established and your information is encrypted. The secure connection is maintained until the transaction is completed or terminated.
- Employees of the Fishermen's Alliance are not permitted to use this information for any purpose other than to carry out the services they are performing for the benefit of the Fishermen's Alliance.
- If you provide us with your postal address or email address, you may receive periodic mailings about the Fishermen's Alliance, its programs, or about upcoming events. If you prefer to not receive these mailings, please let us know by sending an email to info@capecodfishermen.org, or by calling 508-945-2432 and asking for the Development Assistant.

If you have supplied your telephone number online, you may receive telephone contact from us regarding your donation or responding to requests you may have made.
